Introduction

Dear Latino Student,

Congratulations on making the decision to continue your education! This financial aid and scholarship guidebook is designed to support you in learning more about post-secondary education, finding scholarships, and having information about important resources.

The guidebook is divided into two parts. The first part includes general information about all types of financial aid programs that are available to students and explains how to apply for them. The second part is the scholarship list, which identifies different types of scholarships.

Scholarships are grouped by categories to help you find those scholarships for which you may qualify. Some of the categories are: Community service; art, poetry, essay; business, communication, law; education and more. Other scholarships listed are designed specifically for Hispanic/Latino students. If you are not a U.S. citizens or permanent resident, look for the  symbol to find scholarships that may be open to DACA and undocumented students.

The Appendices include a variety of different aids. You can find the glossary (dictionary) of important words in Appendix K, to look up any terms. There is a list of websites to search for more scholarships in Appendix B. If you need additional help, contact La Plaza or other college contacts cited in Appendix I. There is a guide to writing a good essay in Appendix C and there are forms to help you stay organized throughout the Appendices.

La Plaza will periodically update this guide. Let us know if you discover more current information, additional sources, or have other suggestions to improve the content and usefulness of this guide. You can always contact La Plaza for additional assistance in planning for your education at (317) 890-3292 or email our education specialist, Shivani Goyal, at shivani@laplaza-indy.org. We are here to help you!

What does Post-Secondary Education Cost?

- When you search different colleges, you will find tuition rates vary as much as $3,000 a year to more than $40,000 a year. Private universities will be more expensive than public. Also, public universities will often offer discounted tuition rates to state residents, while private universities usually have flat tuition rates.
- Although tuition of private institutions can be intimidating, don't let that stop you from considering them. If you have taken your Core 40 classes in high school, have a competitive GPA, and high SAT or ACT scores, you may be eligible for academic scholarships which help with the cost of tuition. Also, if your family income is low and you are a citizen/legal resident, you will be eligible for government assistance. There are many combinations of scholarships that can help you pay for college.

If you do not qualify for much financial assistance and cannot afford a private school, don't stop dreaming. Indiana has many state schools that offer affordable tuition rates. You can take a few classes at a time or condense your classes into a shorter period of time, in order to make your studies more affordable.

What is Financial Aid?

Financial Aid is the term used to describe all types of financial assistance available to students. There are three types of aid: scholarships, loans, and work programs. There are two sources of financial aid:

- Private financial aid which is available to citizen or non-citizen, depending on the rules of the organization that is giving the aid; and
- Government financial aid is only available for citizens, permanent residents, and certain eligible non-citizens, such as refugees.

The largest source of financial aid is the federal government, followed by state government, college, and private organizations. On average, Hispanic students receive $6,250 in financial aid annually.¹

Type of Financial Aid	Scholarships or Grants	Loans	Work Programs
Private Available to all students, regardless of documentation, at the discretion of the private organization	Merit and Need-based Scholarships from... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundations • Universities • Churches • Businesses • Not-for-profits • Unions 	Private student loans from a bank	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employer tuition benefit programs
Government-Sponsored <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Federal • State Available only to U.S. citizens, permanent residents, and eligible non-citizens. Important Details to Remember about Financial Aid

You must apply for financial aid each year you are in school. It's a good idea to:

- ✓ Get organized and make a plan.
- ✓ Keep a financial aid file in a safe place where you store all copies of applications, documents, and communication, preferably organized by year.
- ✓ Make a calendar of all your deadlines.

You can get help from the Financial Aid Office at the college you are attending or call La Plaza.

Government Financial Aid

There are several government financial aid programs in the United States from federal and state governments. There are three basic types: grants, work-study programs, and loans. In order to apply for any of these programs, you must file a FAFSA form each year. Visit www.fafsa.ed.gov for information or to apply online. Applications are available in Spanish.

What is a government grant? A grant is a gift; it does not need to be paid back. Grants are available from the federal government or state agencies. There are two main federal government grants:

- Pell Grant provides $400-$5,730 depending on your need.
- Federal Supplementary Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) awards from $100-$4,000 according to need.

What if I am not a U.S. citizen or legal resident?

To qualify for U.S. government financial aid, you must be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident, or eligible non-citizen. For example, someone who is in the U.S. as a refugee, 'asylum granted,' or a T-visa. For more information, contact FAFSA 1-800-433-3243.

What is a work-study? This program provides part-time jobs, usually on campus. Work-study jobs are need-based and pay minimum wage or sometimes more. This money goes directly to your student account or to you.

What is a government-sponsored loan? A loan is an amount of money you get through a bank or the government that has to be paid back. Federal loans are the cheapest and allow the longest period of time to pay them back. Look at pages 6-8 for help understanding how loans work. Below is a comparison of the different federal loan programs available.

NAME	Subsidized Federal Stafford Loans	Unsubsidized Federal Stafford Loan	Federal Perkins Loans	Federal PLUS (Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students) Loan
DEFINITION	Loans for which you are not charged interest until repayment begins	Loans for which you are charged interest as soon as you receive the money, but you do not have to pay this until you are no longer in school. What financial aid is available from the State of Indiana?

There are several state grants and financial aid programs:

1. HIGHER EDUCATION AWARDS AND FREEDOM OF CHOICE GRANTS. Funds for students attending public or proprietary colleges are called Higher Education Awards (HEA). Funds for students attending private colleges are called Freedom of Choice Grants (FOC).
2. ACADEMIC HONORS DIPLOMA AND CORE 40 GRANTS. Academic Honors Diploma (AHD) and Core 40 (C40) grants are offered only to students who graduate from an eligible Indiana high school with an AHD and a GPA of 3.0 or with a C40 diploma and a GPA of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale.
3. 21ST CENTURY SCHOLARS PROGRAM. You must have signed up for this scholarship in middle school and graduated from an Indiana HS with a GPA of 2.5. You must enroll full-time in college, and abstain from criminal activity, and illegal use of controlled substances including alcohol throughout high school. You must also complete a series of required activities each year throughout high school. This is a full-tuition scholarship that can only be used at eligible Indiana colleges.
4. NATIONAL GUARD SUPPLEMENT GRANT PROGRAM (NGSG). Students must be on active drilling status in the Indiana Air or Army National Guard and must not have been AWOL during the 12 months prior to enrollment. This grant can be applied toward certain tuition and fees only at Indiana public colleges for either part-time or full-time students.
5. PART-TIME GRANT PROGRAM. At certain colleges, students enrolled less than full-time may be eligible for a Part-Time Grant. For more information, contact the financial aid office of your college.
6. STATE WORK-STUDY PROGRAM. This program helps students get work experience and earn money for college. The student is responsible for finding an eligible employer such as a state government agency, city or local government office, public library, or college.*⁵

How do I qualify for Indiana state financial aid? There are four general requirements to qualify for all Indiana state financial aid:

1. Be a US citizen/permanent resident and legal Indiana resident and must remain so during the academic year
2. Complete the FAFSA by June 30
3. Show financial need
4. Be an undergraduate student working on your associate's or bachelor's degree.

The FAFSA opens on October 1, 2020. By completing the FAFSA and filing it by June 30 you automatically apply for the Indiana scholarships. However, apply as soon as you can to be eligible for the most amount of financial aid! Your college's financial aid office will advise you if you received any of these awards. 21st Century scholarship have their own application process to be completed each year.

To learn more about Indiana State financial aid, check their website at: www.ssaci.state.in.us.

Student Loans

What is a student loan? Banks offer what are called Student or Education Loans. The government also has education loan programs. Government loans and bank loans help students pay for school-related expenses not already paid for by scholarships or other sources of financial aid. People often think loans are the least desirable financial assistance because you will need to re-pay the total amount borrowed plus interest. However, a loan may help you finish your education sooner so you can begin your career.

How expensive are loans? Pay attention to interest, which is the amount the bank or government charges for borrowing the money. You have to pay the loan amount (also called the principal) and the interest. Interest is calculated as a percent of the loan. Some loans have a fixed interest rate, meaning that the interest rate will not change the entire time you are paying back your loans and you will probably be billed the same amount each month. Others, however, have a variable interest rate that may increase or decrease during your repayment period. This affects how much you owe and you may not be able to predict your bills from year to year. There is a complicated formula to figure out how much interest you have to pay, but all of that is calculated by the government or bank. Below are two examples to show how interest and repayment period affects how much money you will have to pay.

What if I am not a U.S. citizen or legal resident?

Any student, regardless of citizenship status, is able to borrow money for their education, provided he or she meets requirements of the lender. Undocumented students may be able to get private student loans from banks with the help of a co-borrower who is a citizen or permanent resident. Read more about these private loans on the next page, and take time to understand how loans work.

First, let's imagine that you have a loan for $10,000 with a 5% fixed interest rate to be paid over 10 years. Your monthly payment will be $105.81. At the end you will actually pay a total of $12,697.79 ($10,000 for the loan and $2,697.79 in interest).

Loan: $10,000

Interest: 5%

Repayment Period: 10 years

Monthly Payment: $105.81

Total Payments: $10,000 loan + $2,697.79 interest

Now let's say you can pay more than $105.81 each month. You want to pay $188.48 each month. How long will it take you to pay off your loan plus interest? It will take only 5 years. Also, you will not be paying as much in interest. Because you only take 5 years to pay off your loan, you only have to pay $1,308.64 in interest instead of $2,697.79.

Loan: $10,000

Interest: 5%

Repayment Period: 5 years

Monthly Payment: $188.48

Total Payments: $10,000 loan + $1,308.64 interest

How do I choose a loan?

Be careful when choosing loan programs because some have very high interest rates, which means you have to pay more money. Government interest rates are considered low and usually do not go above 10%. [You can study the table on page 4 to see interest rates and terms for government loans.] Loan amounts can vary depending on the cost of your school and which bank you go to. Be aware that private loans often include origination fees. Usually the loan check will be sent directly to you, and it's your responsibility to pay your school bills. Each bank has different policies, especially concerning interest rates, repayment periods, and when repayment begins. It would be best to ask different banks what they can offer so you get the best deal available! It is important that you get all of the details of your loan directly from the loan officer at your lending institution. To help you understand some of the language of loan programs, we have provided you with some general information.

How long will I have to repay the loan? For most student loans you do not have to start paying immediately after receiving the money. This is called deferred repayment. Usually you have to start making payments 6 to 9 months after graduation, withdrawal from school, or dropping below half-time status.

The Federal PLUS Loan for parents begins repayment much sooner since it is a loan to the parents and not the student. You can usually choose how long you want to take to repay the loan—the repayment period. When you begin receiving bills in the mail, they will indicate the smallest amount you must pay. The minimum payment is usually based on a 10-year repayment period, meaning that if you pay the smallest amount each month it will take you 10 years before completely paying off your loan. However, if you want to pay more than that, you can. This will help you pay off your loan sooner and with less interest.

Consolidation. Each loan you accept generates a separate bill. If you get one loan each semester of school and you complete four semesters, then you will eventually have 4 different bills each month. When 2 or more of your loans are combined and made into one loan, it is called consolidation. If you consolidate your loans, you can reduce your separate monthly payments into one monthly payment. You may also be able to lower the total amount of interest you must pay and that makes your monthly payments smaller than when there were 4 separate bills. It is also a good idea to borrow money from the same bank and they will help you consolidate your loans automatically.

How do I apply for a loan?

Private Loans. Private bank loans require that you have employment, residency, and credit history. If you do not meet all of the requirements, you will need a co-signer (also referred to as co-applicant or co-borrower) who does and who will sign the loan in addition to you. The co-signer will not receive bills, but if you do not make your loan payments this person will be responsible for paying it for you. If you are a temporary resident or undocumented, you will need a co-signer who is a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.

Government Loans. Again, any government-sponsored program will require that you be a citizen, permanent resident, or qualified non-citizen. You must file a FAFSA form each year you take out a new loan. Some government loans are based on financial need and are available only to students whose household income is below a certain level. Other loans are available to any student regardless of how much money their family makes. Loans are also available for parents who help you pay for school, but these loans cannot be deferred.

Important Loan Details To Remember

- ✓ Be organized and keep your own records.
- ✓ Borrow only what you absolutely need.
- ✓ At the time you apply for the student loan, ask for the interest rate. The lower the interest rate, the better. Also, find out if interest is fixed or variable. If it is variable, you will receive notices in the mail when the interest rate is changing.
- ✓ Many banks reward borrowers who have good credit history with lower interest rates, so make sure your credit history shows good borrowing and repayment before applying for a private loan.
- ✓ Make sure you know exactly when you have to start paying back the loan.
- ✓ If for any reason you stop going to school (graduation, academic probation, withdrawal) and are no longer a student, you will have to start paying back your loans.

Scholarships

What is a scholarship? A scholarship (or grant) is a monetary gift given to students who meet a set of requirements, such as having a GPA above 3.0, or demonstrating financial need. You do not have to pay scholarship money back to the organization that gave it to you. Scholarship money helps to pay your tuition and expenses, such as housing and books, at technical school, college or university.

Who offers scholarships? Scholarships are available from many different organizations:

- federal, state and local governments
- private companies and foundations
- professional associations
- and other non-governmental groups—such as churches, social clubs, unions, charities, or your parents' place of employment.

Also, every college offers its own scholarships. Be sure to check with your high school counselor or coach and the colleges/universities you are considering to find out about these opportunities.

See a list of scholarships in Appendix A

How do I use the scholarship money to pay for school?

You will receive a bill shortly after you register for classes. Many scholarships will go directly to the school, and you should see the scholarship amount subtracted from the total bill. If the scholarship is less than the total bill, you must pay the remaining amount. If there is extra money after paying the bill, you will receive a refund.

Your refund can be used for other school expenses such as books, computer, office equipment, gas, groceries, etc. Some scholarships will come in the form of a check directly to you, and it will be your responsibility to pay your school bill. Other scholarships require you to pay your tuition/expenses and then present the organization with your receipts. Then the scholarship organization will send you a check for that amount. Each scholarship program will explain to you its procedures for giving you the money.

What if I am not a U.S. citizen or legal resident?

You can still earn scholarships. While you are not eligible for any U.S. government-funded scholarships, there are many private scholarships for students who are not citizens or legal residents and do not have a SS#.

This symbol  is used to identify scholarships that do not require U.S. citizenship or permanent residency. These are open to students with DACA or undocumented students or both. You will need to read and follow all the same requirements as any applicant. The symbol is used if a scholarship does not specify residency requirements.

Many college-based scholarships do not require citizenship because they are funded by private donors. Work with a knowledgeable admissions counselor or financial aid advisor at the college of your choice who can recommend the scholarships that you are eligible for. Contact information is in Appendix I.

Warning: Never apply for a scholarship or college admission using false information. Never claim you are a citizen when you are not. If you do, you can be permanently barred from legal entry in to the US.

How Do I Prepare for Scholarship Requirements? Scholarships are competitive, and your goal is to show that you have the best qualifications to receive the scholarship based on the requirements described below. The requirements will vary depending on the specific scholarship you are applying for, but many of the programs have similar requirements. Here are some common scholarship requirements. Note that some requirements, such as a Community Service Record, involve keeping a written record of your activities throughout high school.

1. GOOD GRADES. Many scholarships are merit-based, and the most important qualification is high grades. Most applications require a Grade Point Average (GPA) ranging from a 2.5 to 3.8 on a scale of 4.0. It also helps if you have taken advanced courses, such as Advanced Placement or International Baccalaureate, that can boost your GPA. Keep track of your GPA so you know what you are eligible for. Many require at least a 3.0 GPA so aim to stay above that.

2. TRANSCRIPTS. In order to prove your GPA, you will need to request official copies of your high school transcript from your school's guidance office to submit with your application. Official transcripts will be provided in a sealed envelope. Do not open these! Just send them with your scholarship application.

3. COMMUNITY SERVICE RECORD (CS). Your record of providing any kind of service to your community versus another applicant's record of community service can make a difference to the scholarship committee when deciding who is more qualified. Be in the habit of searching for community service opportunities at your school, place of worship, a nearby community center, etc. and schedule community service into your calendar each month. You can use the My Community Service Record form in Appendix D.

4. EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES. Any activity that you engage in other than being in class is considered an extra-curricular activity. This includes any club or organization within your school or the local community, such as a sports team, band, National Honors Society, or Tu Futuro. Scholarship committees are looking for applicants who have invested time outside of class in leadership roles while still maintaining an above-average GPA.

5. LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION (LoR). Always be sure to establish good communication with your teachers, employers, and counselors. This means developing and maintaining good relationships with those people who can provide evidence of your efforts in class, your dedication to your education, and your commitment to your community. These are the people who can write a letter to a scholarship committee recommending you for the desired scholarship. Some applications require two, three and even four LoRs. When you ask for a LoR, it is best to give the person information about the scholarship for which you are applying and information about yourself (either your resume or a paragraph describing yourself, your efforts at school, your extra-curricular activities, and community service). Turn to Appendix G, for some guidelines requesting an LoR.

6. ACT / SAT TEST SCORES. When you are preparing to take these college aptitude tests, do not hesitate to send your scores to the different institutions where you might apply. Check with your high school counselor to register for these tests early. Apply for a fee waiver if you do not have the money to pay for the test. There are practice booklets to help you prepare for the tests. Take the test early, so you can re-take it if you need to improve your scores. Check www.act.org and www.collegeboard.com for more information.

7. ESSAY. Depending on the instructions given with the scholarship application, you will be expected to write an essay on a given topic or answer a set of questions in essay form. Be sure to prepare yourself and learn the components of a good essay. The length of each essay depends on the scholarship to which you are applying. Turn to Appendix C for a guide in writing a good essay.

8. RESUME. Some scholarships ask students to write a resume, or a summary of the student and his/her achievements. Turn to Appendix F to find the Student Resume Guide.

9. EVIDENCE OF FINANCIAL NEED. Your parents' income and your income information is needed to determine what type and how much aid you are eligible for. All government aid and some scholarships require you to complete the FAFSA form. When you complete your FAFSA form, you will receive a Student Aid Report (SAR). The SAR will determine your Expected Family Contribution (EFC), which is the amount you and your family are expected to contribute toward your education. If you are unable to fill out the FAFSA, some scholarships accept your W2 forms to prove income. Since family income can vary from year to year, you must submit a new FAFSA application every year.

NOTE: Some scholarships will allow alternative forms of financial need evidence, such as a copy of your Tax Return (people without documents can pay taxes using their ITIN numbers) or by simply filling in the FAFSA with W-2 and Tax Return info, and submitting it with the application rather than having the FAFSA formally processed.

10. INTERVIEW. Some scholarships require you to interview with the people who will be choosing the scholarship winners. There are a few key things you can do to prepare yourself for these interviews. First, be prepared to discuss your background, academic achievements, college choice, career goals, and any other information you included in your application. The interviewers may not know or remember all the details from your application, so it's okay to repeat things you already wrote about. It's a good idea to practice answering these kinds of questions before the actual interview. Always be honest in your answers and don't be afraid to say "I don't know." Be yourself.

Second, be familiar with the organization that is interviewing you. Know what the organization does and be aware of anything the organization has done recently in the community. If you are awarded the scholarship, sometimes you will be expected to be an "ambassador" for their organization.

Third, be sure you are not late for your interview! If you are going to be late, call and let the interviewers know. Get directions to the interview before you leave your house, so you don't get lost. You can also make a practice drive to the location just to see how long it takes to get there.

Who can help you find scholarships?

Your high school counselor will receive information about new scholarships as they come out. Often they will be posted on your school website under the "guidance" link, or information will be posted outside of your school guidance office.

The Tu Futuro program offers personal help finding scholarships through workshops, application drives and one-on-one meetings.

This guide has descriptions of some scholarships you can apply for if you meet their specific requirements. New scholarship programs become available on a regular basis. Appendix B lists internet sites where you can search for more scholarships. Each scholarship entry has some basic information that will help you decide if you should apply for it. If you have any questions regarding the information provided, please call La Plaza's staff at (317) 890-3292 or the specific scholarship organization directly. The example below explains what each line of the scholarship entry means.

Name: Refers to the name of the scholarship or grant program.

Source: The name of the organization or foundation that provides the money for the scholarship or grant.

Target: A description of the type of students for whom the scholarship is available.

Deadline: Indicates the date that the application is due. Usually that means it must arrive at the organization by that date, unless it says "postmark by."

Requirements: These requirements vary from one scholarship to another and may include GPA, grade level in high school or college/university/technical school, number of letters of recommendation (LoR), citizenship or residency status, and essays required.

Amount: Indicates the amount of money you can receive for the scholarship.

Contact: Provides information that will help you contact the scholarship organization to request and submit the scholarship application. Check the organization's website to learn as much as you can about the scholarship program and how to apply. Sometimes applications can be submitted online.

Below is a key to remind you what certain abbreviations and symbols mean when you are reading the scholarship information. Remember to watch for the symbol ⌘ to locate scholarships that are available for DACA students and/or undocumented students. This symbol ❖ is used when it is not determined whether citizenship or permanent residency will be a requirement. Some programs may change their requirements from time to time. Check with the contact person or organization. The key looks like this:

LoR= Letter of Recommendation	CS= Community Service Record	SAR= Student Aid Report	TBA: To be Announced
⌘ = Available to Non US Citizens/Non Permanent Residents	❖ = Must Check with Scholarship for Citizenship Requirement

Some scholarships may fall into more than one category. When this happens, you will see the name of the scholarship and the page number where you can find all of the detailed information. For example, the American Chemical Society's Scholar Program is for students of Hispanic heritage with a science major. Guide to Writing a Good Essay

Many scholarships require applicants to write an essay on a certain topic. This section can help you organize and write a great essay. It is very important that any essays you submit are not copied or borrowed from any other source. Essays must be your own work!

Qualities of a Good Essay:

Good English Language Use: Your essay should show your ability to organize your thoughts and use your English language skills. It's okay if you do not speak English very well; just ask someone for help. Write your essay first. Get all your ideas on paper using the outline below. Then it is beneficial for everyone to have a teacher or counselor critique and proofread your essay. They can make suggestions on how to improve your essay. They can help you correct any spelling, punctuation, or grammatical errors.

Content, Substance, and Depth: Your writing should showcase your ability to think about your self and express your opinions/feelings in a meaningful way.

Creativity and Originality: Your essay should represent your story, not anyone else's. What meaningful experiences have you had? What challenges have you overcome? What lessons have you learned and how? Use your personal story to guide your writing.

Basic Essay Outline:

Intro: (1)Start with a sentence that says something about yourself, relating to the topic. (2)Then write a thesis statement, a sentence stating what you will discuss in the essay. (3)Finally, mention the three main points you will make about this topic.

Elaborate on each of the main points.

Main Point #1

Main Point #2

Main Point #3

Conclusion: Include a sentence or two summarizing what you just wrote about, including the essay topic and your three main points. Final sentence should bring the essay to a close. It may be a good idea to say how the scholarship will help you achieve your goals.

Appendix C

Guide to Writing a Good Essay

Now let's try a sample essay to see how a good essay reflects the 3 qualities mentioned on the previous page and follows the basic essay outline. THIS IS JUST AN EXAMPLE! All essays must be your own work and not copied from any other source. Sample Essay Topic: Explain your personal story describing your background including upbringing, challenges/obstacles, goals/aspirations/ambitions that include long and short term goals, your leadership involvement and ways you contributed to your community and how you will continue to do so after graduation, and why you chose your field of study.

This topic may seem like it's asking for you to write a lot! Following the basic essay outline will help you include each of the points they are asking you to discuss. First, you must write an introduction paragraph. (1) In my short life of 17 years I have experienced many twists and turns. (2) Each aspect of my life has brought me closer to fulfilling my dreams of going to college to become a doctor. (3) The three significant events in my life that have influenced my goals are: coming to the US, seeing how hard life is for my parents, and the joy I feel after helping those in my community.

Next, you will have one or two paragraphs for each of your main points. Main Point #1: Coming to the US. When I was 13 years old my parents told me and my four siblings that we were going to move to the US. Our father had heard of a company in Indiana where he could get a job. It had taken us several years to save up enough money to move to the US, and once we were finally here it took time to find a place to live and adjust to the different people here. Even though we did not speak English, my siblings and I were able to learn at school and found lots of friends. Both my father and my mother found jobs. We had accomplished a great goal by finally making it to the US. If we could do this, we could do anything!

Main Point #2: Seeing how hard it is for my parents. Although coming to the US was a major achievement, there are many challenges in our daily lives. My mother and father work very hard and for very long hours. Sometimes they even have to work two jobs each just to make ends meet. We hardly see them and I have to take care of many things on our own, such as making meals, doing the laundry, and getting to school. The reasons they cannot find better jobs is because they speak little English and did not go to college. I knew from an early age that I wanted to go to college so I could have a good job to take care of myself and my family.

Main Point #3: Helping in my community. Whenever my siblings or I go to the doctor, I always have to interpret between my parents and the doctor. There are not many doctors who can speak Spanish with my parents. Since I was a high school Sophomore I have volunteered at the hospital to translate for doctors and Spanish speaking patients. I am always happy when I can help a doctor understand the concerns of the patient and when the patient receives the care they need. Despite the language barrier, patients are always so grateful for the help the doctor provided. I am so inspired by the caring and knowledgeable doctors that I now want to become a physician myself. I am different, though, because I will not need a Spanish translator!

You've explained your upbringing, challenges/obstacles, community service, and your career goals. Finally, you must write a conclusion paragraph. This is just a recap of what you just wrote. (Sentences including essay topic and three main points) My life has had its good times and bad times, but each moment has led me to this point where I am going to graduate from high school and attend college. Moving to the US and watching my parents struggle in low-paying jobs has influenced me to want to attend college and have a successful career. My community service translating at the hospital has focused my career goals to becoming a doctor. (Final statement to end essay) This scholarship will help me achieve my goals of not only attending college, but also continuing to medical school and becoming a Spanish-speaking physician.

My Scholarship Tracking Form

Be organized! It will help you save time as you apply for multiple scholarships.

It is important to keep a record of the scholarships you are applying for. The “My Scholarships” form on the next page provides spaces for you to write information about each application. Below is an explanation for each space on the form.

Scholarship Name & Deadline Of course you need the scholarship name and the deadline to turn in your application to serve as a reminder so you don’t miss the all important deadline! It would not be any good to do all the work to complete an application if it doesn’t get there on time because you forgot the correct date. Make sure you know if the application needs to be received in the scholarship program office by the deadline date or if the application needs to be postmarked by the deadline date.

Requirements Once you have each requirement completed, you can put a checkmark next to that item. Requirements include completing the application, essay, transcripts, LoRs, etc. This way you can see exactly what is left to do before sending the application in the mail.

My Own Copy It is also important that you make a photocopy for yourself of everything you are sending to the scholarship organization just in case it gets lost. Once this is done, put a checkmark in the My Own Copy space. Keep these copies in a folder until the scholarship has been awarded.

Date Sent Finally, you should write down the date your application was mailed. This is important in case the scholarship organization asks you when you sent your application, or if it gets lost in the mail.

Notes There is also a space for any notes you want to make about the scholarship. If you called to ask a question about requirements or to confirm they received your application, you should write the date, with whom you spoke, and what information you found out. You can also write notes on any information they send you in the mail. One important thing to remember is that if you receive a letter in the mail, and you don’t understand what it means (or even if you do understand) take the letter to your counselor to find out exactly what the letter is telling you. Sometimes scholarship organizations will request additional information to approve you for the scholarship, but this can be mistaken as a letter saying you did not receive the scholarship. If you just throw away a letter like this, you could be missing out on a great scholarship opportunity. Do not be afraid to ask your counselor or someone to explain what is written in a letter from a scholarship organization or to help you in any way!

Student Resume Guide

Some schools and scholarships may ask you to submit a “resume”. The resume should include the following:

- Your personal information- name, address, telephone number, and professional email address.
Some schools will ask you to include your social security or student identification number on the heading.
 - High School information—name of high school, anticipated graduation date, GPA, and class rank (if competitive)
 - SAT / ACT Scores-if scores are competitive
 - Extracurricular Activities-Activities should be put in categories and then the category that you have the most experience in should be listed first. Some will have stellar athletic accomplishments and Athletics should be listed next. Others will have impressive Leadership or Student Government activities. Participation in Student Clubs, Performing Arts, and other activities should be included as well.
 - Community Service and Volunteer Experience
 - Honors and Awards-Depending upon the number of honors and awards, you may want to group them together in your Education section or list them in a separate category.
 - Work Experience-If you have worked a part-time job for a significant amount of time.
- Writing a high school resume is no different from writing a resume for the job you want. Your goal is to accent your assets as a student both academically and socially. Make sure you highlight your strong points first. If you are an excellent student and have great test scores, make sure that is the focus of the resume. If you are active in the student body, sports, and clubs, but do not have the highest scores, then focus on your leadership skills and extra-curricular achievements.
 - Schools and scholarship committees want to see a well rounded student that will make a difference with their investment. Resumes should not be more than one page in length, so be descriptive but concise. The following are some tips when writing a resume:
 - Make sure your resume is organized and easy to read! Your name and key information should be at the top, followed by the different categories in bold. The descriptions in each category should have bullet points.
 - Include concise details for each activity—do not write sentences or paragraphs. Use action words such as “led,” “initiated,” and “developed” to write when describing your achievements.
 - Activities under each category should be listed in reverse chronological order, starting with most recent and going back.
 - Remember that resumes come in different formats, and that the sample provided is just one example of how to write one.

How to Ask for a Letter of Recommendation (LoR)

Some schools and scholarships (not all of them) will ask you to get “letters of recommendation.” These are letters from people who know you and who can attest to your good grades, your community service, your dedication to learn, etc.

- First of all, you have to decide who to ask for a letter of recommendation. Preferably choose a teacher or counselor who is familiar with you personally and academically. Other people who can be good sources of recommendations are coaches, mentors, your supervisor at work, volunteer coordinator, youth group leader, priest, pastor, etc.
- When you ask an adult to write you a recommendation, don’t assume he/she knows everything about your needs or the requirements of the scholarship. You must be specific. Provide that person with some of the following specific information:
 - a resume of your high school achievements
 - a description of exactly what you want the letter of recommendation for (so the person knows what to focus on)
 - the date you need the letter of recommendation mailed out or handed to you
- Keep in mind that the person who ask may be very busy, and will need ample time to write the letter. Be sure you ask the person to write you a letter several weeks BEFORE your application is due!
- Always write a thank you note to the person who writes you a letter of recommendation.
